

David Ellison is an attorney and member of the Athens-Clarke County Hearings Board. As Commissioner, David will use his legal training and zoning background to promote sustainable economic development and preserve Athens' unique character.

He listens to each citizen's point of view and is a problem solver who will provide practical leadership in handling the many issues confronting Athens-Clarke County.

David will:

- Encourage Job Creation and Local Business Investment
- Ensure that Taxpayers' Dollars are spent Efficiently and Effectively
- Promote Pedestrian Friendly Neighborhoods with Parks and Greenspace
- Strive for Affordable Property Taxes and County Service Fees
- Represent Athens and Cultivate an Improved Relationship with the State Government